CSX Update: CEO Harrison Fires Back at Rail Customer Coalition

A couple days after letters from the Rail Customers and the STB were made public, CSX CEO Hunter Harrison responded in force. He didn't mince words when he called the Customers' accusations "unfounded and grossly exaggerated." He then accused the coalition of using the issue to further their own goals of getting rate-setting and access rules (a.k.a. "forced access" or "competitive switching") rewritten to benefit shippers over the railroads.
