Tentative National Agreement Reached by the CBG

A tentative National Agreement has been reached by the six Rail Unions who comprise the Coordinated Bargaining Group (CBG). These six Unions are now in the process of submitting the Tentative Agreement to the specific ratification process of each Union.

This is a major development in a long and contentious bargaining round with the industry. TCU is not part of the CBG however the Agreement will undoubtedly form the basis of any agreement we are able to reach.
