National Negotiations Update

On October 5, the Coordinated Bargaining Group (CBG) reached a Tentative National Agreement (TA) with the nations' freight railroads. On October 7, that information was posted on the TCU website.

The TA is now being circulated to the members of the six CBG unions approximately 85,000 rail workers.

On November 10, the CBG issued a Press Release providing additional information and condemning interference by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees (BMWE).

Veterans Day 2017...

Since our forefathers founded this country, America's military has battled to keep it, and to keep us, safe. To honor every veteran who has fought for freedom, Veterans Day became an officially recognized day of remembrance in 1954.

On Veterans Day, we remember the fallen and pay tribute to those heroes who still fight. Please pause this November 11 to pay your respects to every service member who has ever honorably worn the uniform.
